The Immigration Industry Association (IIA) and the Investment Migration Council (IMC) Announce Collaborative Partnership Agreement

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Geneva, 13th March 2018

The Immigration Industry Association (IIA), a non-profit association and the Investment Migration Council (IMC), the worldwide association for Investor Immigration and Citizenship-by-Investment, announced a strategic partnership arrangement that will enhance collaboration on initiatives for industry best practices, education and development.

Bruno L'ecuyer, CEO of the Investment Migration Council commented, 'The collaboration between the IMC and IIA is a natural step forward for both organizations but also benefitting the investor immigration industry globally.'

'The IIA is a forum for the global immigration community to come together to network, share ideas, information, research and experiences compliments the core objectives of the IMC,' said Chairman Chris Galway. 'This partnership will enable both organisations to ensure the best possible outcomes for their members and the industry.'

The Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) signed by the two organisations will lead to streamlined cooperation in the following four areas: membership exchange, conference collaboration, industry & professional development and organisational promotion.

About the IMC

The Investment Migration Council (IMC) is the worldwide association for professionals dealing with investor immigration and citizenship-by-investment, bringing together the leading stakeholders in the field and giving the industry a voice. The IMC sets the standards on a global level and interacts with other professional associations, governments and international organizations in relation to investment migration. The IMC helps to improve public understanding of the issues faced by clients and governments in this area and promotes education and high professional standards among its members.

About the IIA

The Immigration Industry Association (IIA) is a Non-Profit Association formed by way of a Community Interest Company (CIC). Its purpose is to provide benefits and support to its Immigration Industry members and the wider migrant and expat community around the world. The IIA is a forum for the immigration community to come together to network, share ideas, information, research and experiences.
